

All About Our Camp

The City of Coral Gables offers a fun and exciting golf summer camp for junior golfers ages 6–16. Campers learn fundamental golf swing skills, golf course play and basic rules of golf while enjoying a fun golf experience in a welcoming environment at the Granada Golf Course in Coral Gables.

The camp is designed to meet the needs of all junior golfers of all ages and abilities. Our program is open to all juniors including those with special needs.

Our programs have received awards and positive feedback from the Professional Golfers Association of America (PGA), Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce, as well as from the special needs community.

Age groups are 6 - 9; 10 - 12; and 13 and up. Campers will participate in a number of different types of contests and games while learning the swing and shot techniques. Campers will learn golf rules, Golf course play, and participate in Golf Olympics.

Philip J. Argianas, PGA Certified Professional in Instruction, will direct the camp activities. He has successfully conducted Summer Golf Camps at South Florida Golf Courses for the past twenty years.

Philip Argianas has been recognized and received six times the Junior Golf Leader Award, by the “PGA” Professional Golfers Association.

The camp is sure to give excellent quality instruction encouraging each participant to learn, to improve and enjoy playing golf for years to come.
